

About the Author

Lynne is an Alberta Girl who went to the big Eastern city to find work and adventure.

She found Fred and together they started their lives of adventure going 'Back-to-the-Land' in Cape Breton in 1969.

In 2001 Lynne took a two year sabbatical from her work as a Human Resource Consultant to become a turtle and explore North America in their Recreational Vehicle. She never looked back.

Lynne started her writing career by creating a Photo Journal Web Site (before Blogs). She has had a number of articles published in the RV Times magazine, Canadian Stories magazine and currently edits a newsletter for a group of writers (Penwheels) who belong to the Escapees RV Club.

Lynne considers the RV as their home but spends some time in their expensive storage unit Condo in Lethbridge, Alberta.
